

Announcing the ninth Law-Psychology forum on
Current issues in forensic psychology

1 March 2019, Friday 6:30-8:30 pm
Fordham University, 113 West 60 Street, room 1022

What is the current status and likely future of psychology applied to law? As part of the Fordham Law-Psychology Seminar, this forum brings together 3 experts to describe a current issue in forensic psychology. Each presentation is 20 minutes, to allow time for discussion afterwards.

Chair: Professor Robert Emmons, JD, Fordham
 Welcomes: Harold Takooshian, PhD, Fordham

Opioid addiction: A crime or a disease?
Cory H. Morris, JD, MA
Social justice attorney,
www.coryhmorris.com

Informed consent in forensic practice
Thomas A. Caffrey, Past-President,
NYSPA Division of Forensic Psychology

Forensic psychological evaluations
 in immigration proceedings
Roy Aranda, PsyD, JD, President,
NYSPA Division of Forensic Psychology

Discussant: Armen Morian, JD
Office of the NYS Attorney General

Beverages served. All are welcome.

Notes: This forum is hosted by the Fordham-LC Law-Psychology seminar, in cooperation with MPA, SPSSI-NY, and NYSPA Forensic Division For any details, check www.spssi.org/ny, or contact takoosh@aol.com

